debate in the House, says the Free Trader, the following colloquy occurred between Mr. Keitt of Sonth Carolina, and Mr. Campbell of Ohio. Mr. Campbell asserted that the President's action in relation to the slavery question had been condemned by a majority of 300,000 of the voters in the United States.

Mr. Keitt wished to know if the gentleman regarded the votes cast by the supporters of Mr. Filimore at the North as condemnatory of the Kansas Nebraske bill and in favor of Free soil. Mr. Campbell replied that he did not believe that there was a single Northern member belong-ing to the Fillmore party who did not oppose the principles of the Kansas-Nebraska bill. He would venture to say, that in the free States there was not one man in every thousand who voted for Mr. Fillmore who did not oppose the repeal of the Missonri Compromise.

We have no disposition to visit the land of the tombs and by opening the portals of the grave, continue a warfare upon the dead. But it is but just and proper that Southern men should know how false and deceptive were the efforts resorted to by leading men to induce them to support Mr. Fillmore. They said that Fillmore was as sound on every question interesting the South as was Mr. Buchanan; that his supporters in the North, their allies and brethren. were as sound as were the Northern Democrats; that his election would be an effectual "crushing out" of the principles of the Black Republican party. The Southern Democrats denied these assertions as baseless in truth, and right wrothy were the Southern Know Nothings when we told them that their friends in the North stood essentially precisely upon the sameplatform with the mass of the Black Republicans. Well, both and an parties in the South. The Legisla | the Dark Lanternites. tures of many Southern States solemnly endorsed its principles. It was supported by evemeet this grim black monster that thus threat- tion of their success. ened to assail our rights, our equality and our honor. It was a fearful struggle, and one or the other must go down. At this juncture the K. N. party, with no chauce in the North-with no chance in the South-brought out Mr. Fillmore and perunaciously supported him. The result proved that the only effect of his candidacy was to take Mary laud from Buchanan, If Buchheaped apon the Southern Know Nothings?

But we have digressed. We started out to show that the Northern supporters of Fillmore stood side by side with the Black Republicans upon the issues they made n the canvass, And here we produce the testimony of Lewis D. Campbell, a man renowned in Know Nothing Councils, who asserts tra be dues 'not believe there was a six-GLE Northern number belonging to the Fillmore party who did not op one the principles of the Kunsaswas not one man in every thousand who voted for Mr. Pilimore who did not oppose the repeal of the Missours Compromise."

This man Campbell made a speech at a Know Nothing meeting, in the early part of the canvass, zealously supporting Mr. Fillmore; but he soon found out Fillmore's weakness, and, as the most efficient means of carrying out his well known Freesoil opinions, he supported Fremont as the strongest man. Let it be remembered, tco, that the "Flag of the Union," and other Know Nothing papers in the South, published copious extracts from this same speech, and lauded it to extracts from this same speech, and lauded it to danger, he repeatedly expressed his admiration the skies. Here then it is publicly asserted in for Gen. Walker as a man and an officer; spoke Congress-and not denied by either Northern or Southern Know Nothings-that the Northern supporters of Filmore stood upon the same issues with the Black Republicans, and that every vote cast for Fillmore in the North is counted with the Black Republican strength, and thus the two votes combined, are hecalded forth as a the Doctor's explanation of his sudden change condemnation of a measure which the South has of opinion endorsed with remarkable unanimity, and which was made the issue upon which the Black Republicans based their warrare upon the South in the last canvass.

Further comment on this is unnecessary. It sreaks for itself; and it should warn Southern men, members of the Know Nothing party, to be not longer deceived. You have no motive to be dishonest. You have every motive prompting you to a firm maintenance of your rights. You can not certainly hold political fellowship with a party in the North, who stand upon national issues side by side with your deadly enemies, in opposition to the only party there that is willing to do you justice. The question has narrowed itself down Your parly no longer has an identity in the North. Many, we doubt not, will be forced into the Democratic ranks; the others will rush head-long into their congenial positions alongside of Fremont and Greeley. You must stand by yourselves without power in the South -a mere faction-a mere political cypher. Or you must, as we hope you will, surrender your ancient prejudices, quit opposing the Democratie party, quit separating the people of the South: and thus unite once and forever our assailed and derided section, so that her voice may go up as one voice and be heard as one voice in the declaration and maintenance of your rights. The moral effect of this would be great. As it is, your political power is nothing, and the only effect of your organization is to divide and weaken the councils of the South-divide and weaken the effect of her remonstrances.

COMPLIMENT TO AN EDITOR .- The Democracy of Wheeling, Va., have presented the editor of the Argus, the Democratic organ there, $1,000 in f were assailed on Christmas day by a perfect therefore, will, for the present at least, be delivcash, as a recognition of his services in the late shower of "Christmas gifts"—in every variety ered in that room, and will commence at the canvant, and to increase the future efficiency of of form. We suppose that our's will be sent in usual hour, 9 o'clock A. M., Thursday, January his paper.

LEGAL.—Quite a strange and novel case was decided by our Court of Appeals a few days ago. JOHN O. BUGLACK & JOHN C. NOBLE, BUITORS The facts are these. Ellen Bell, the appellant married Samuel Bell, her son-in-law. Samuel died leaving Ellen his widow, and several children by the daughter of Ellen. The heirs of Samuel refused to assign dower to Ellen, whereupon she brought suit against the heirs in the Trimble Citcuit Court. Judge Pryor, then presiding, thought the marriage was prohibited by the statutes of 1798, and therefore void, and he dismissed the suit of Ellen. From this decision Ellen appealed. The Court of Appeals held, first that the marriage between a woman and her sonin-law was not prehibited by the act of 1798. Second, that if the act did prohibit the marriage, still under the provisions of the act the marriage was only voidable and the wife was entitled to dower unless sentence of divorce was declared; and further, that the sentence of divorce could not be declared after the death of either of the Judge Pryor and say that, Ellen, the mother-in-law-wife must have dower. We give the main facts in, and the final decission of this case because it is one of such exceeding rarity.

The case was argued in the Court of Appeals by John Roberts for Ellen Bell, and Samuel E. DeHaven for the heirs of Samuel Bell deceased.

A SEGGESTION TO THE SOUTH .- The idea ad advanced in the recent message of Gov. Adams, that the institution of slavery can be strength ened in the South by exempting by law a certain amount of negro property from execution, is endorsed by the Richmond Enquirer and the Arkansas States Rights Democrat, and warmly recommended by them to their respective Legisla tures. The argument is that such a law would inspire the poor man to lay up his earnings until he had amassed an amount sufficient to buy a rise in the river will exhanst the stock in the Islands from the South. slave, knowing the law would protect him in hands of dealers. his possession, notwithstanding misfortune or adversity might sweep from him all else beside; that every man would thus become a slave-owner, and be impervious to the most subtle sophistry against an institution with which he will have become identified, and upon which he will lean for support; that the institution would be thus spread and strengthened to defy all the fury of fanaticism, and laugh to merited scorn the sickly sentimentality of the North.

The editor of the Jonrnal expects that Mr. what were these principles? Seward, Greely, Buchanan will have the worst sort of difficulties Banks and the other black chiefs, asserted that with his own party; in fact, he has no idea that the Biack Republican party strang into exist- Old Buck will be able to get along with such a ence in consequence of the passage of the Kan- set of rapscallions. The editor of the Journal, in the vain attempt to justify his infamous conduct in advising the Fillmore men of Indiana to vote for Morton at the late gubernatorial election, reproduces the charge of abolitionism against Gov. The charge anan had been defeated by the loss of these was pronounced to be false, and its author aight votes, what curses would the South have branded as a columniator, at the time. There is some paliation in this mendacity of the Journal, perhaps, in view of the fact that Col. Very respectfully, your obedient servant, C. C. HORNSBY, Brig. Gen. Nicaraguan Army. New Orleans, Dec. 24, 1856. CLOSING THE LEDGER.

BY HENRY MUNFORD. Close up the Ledger, 'Time'.
Slowly and sadly, but let it be:
Mournfully passeth by the year;
What are the records, for you and me.
Lett by the fating nagers here?
What for passion and what for love!
What for passion and what for love! What for passion and what for jove: What for avarice and crime? What for hope and the heaven above? What of the Ledger of Time?

Many a name for good or ill,
Fils to the margin your blotted acrolf—
Many a high and haughty will—
Many a law and humble sowl;
I et one pare to each is given,
Marking the changing path we climb—
Holding the balance of hell or heaven:
What of the Ledger, Time

Close up the Ledger, Time?
Say are we creditors for aught?
Have we a store of noble deeds?
Springing from high and generous thought?
Such as our failen brother needs?
Have we laid up for coming years?
Words to weave in a funeral rhyme,
Names that will call up grateful lears?
What of the Ledger, Time?

Close up the Ledger, Time!
Say what promises Hope has drawn;
Say what draft stern Truth has paid,
Say what the bar have gone,
Is the grave with memory laid.
Say if the heart has kept its own
Geshering beauty with lure and lime,
If it has turned to senseless stone;
What of the Ledger, Time?

Close up the Ledger, Time!

Ilark! the knell of the year goer by!
Have I run out my golden sand!
Where shall I be when the next shall die!
Where shall he soul within me stand!
Naught beyond may the Ledger tell—
Naught be known but in guilt and crime
Listen, I hear the New Year's bell!
Shut up the Ledger, Time!

The four negroes implicated in the mnrder of the Joyce family, will be tried at the next term of the Jefferson Criminal Court, which will be held in this city on the 12th inst.

We learn from the Paris Citizen, that Mr. James Hall, of Bourbon, recently sold a Jack, two years old last April, to Mr. John F. Payne, of Scott, for the large price of $2,400 .-The animal received the first prize at the State to issue a paper upon the day succeeding New Ycar's. The Times will not therefore be published to-morrow. All hands must, of course, enjoy the first day of the year as a holiday. A bloody affray occurred in Nicholasville on Christmas day. A man named Jamerson, from Garrard county, and a Mr. Meredith, who had been betting largely, were the principals. A good deal of blood was spilt, and one man lost an eve. TINGLE, TINGLE, TINGLE,-At the recent Presdential election, thirty-one independent voters Henry county, known by the enphonious name of Tingle, cast their suffrages for Buchan-State in the Union.

A severe test of the strength of the suspension bridge at Niagara Falis was afforded by A severe test of the strength or the susthe gale on the evening of the 13th inst., when the toll-gatherers deserted their posts at either end, and crowds assembled to see it fall: but it tood like a rock. FATAL AFFRAY. -On Friday last there was an affray at Poplar Neck, P. O., Nelson county, about six miles from Bardstown, between two nen, named Charles Metcalfe and Henry Bartley, iu which the latter received the contents of a shot gun in his stomach, from the effects of which he died in a few hours. Metcalfe was arrested, but was released without bail, as it was thought he acted in self defense.

Bos H .- The telegraphic report of an immense egro insurrection at Jackson, Mississippi, is the sheerest humbug. There is not one word of truth in it. The Mayor's proclamation is the same issued by that functionary for many years past. It forbids negroes from the adjacent country, coming to the city during Christmas night

The Evansville Journal learns from the tobacco dealers of Henderson, Ky., that over 4000 hogsheads of the various kinds of tobacco will have been shipped from that point by the close of the season, entirely from last year's crop. The average value per package is two hundred and fifty dollars, making a total of $1,000,060.

The Court of Appeals have affirmed the lecision of the Favette Circuit Court, in the case of the Lexington and Big Sandy Railroad Company vs. the city of Lexington. By this decision, the city of Lexington is required to issue its bonds to the Lexington and Big Sandy Railroad Company, to the amount of $150,000, as stock in said company.

C Some excitement has been created amongst the weak-nerved citizens of Hickman, by a recent report that a flat-boat had been seen floating down the river, having a large quantity of arms and munitions of war aboard, which were to be sold to the negroes. The whole affair is doubtless a hoax.

KENTUCKY AHEAD! CHRISTMAS GIFT EXTRA ORDINARY .- On the morning of Christmas day the lady of George Fearons, Esq., Mayor of Newport, presented him with three children at one birth, two boys and a girl. "The b'hoys" thought this was "taking the horns," and when the Mayor reached his office yesterday morning, he found, firmly nailed over the door, a splendid pair of buckhorns.

See advertisement of Messrs. Root and Woolfolk in this morning's paper. They have formed a copartnership for the transaction of Forwarding Commission, and Produce business, Second street, between Main and Market, west side. Messrs. R. & W. are reliable, good business men. Persons wishing business carefully transacted, and goods received and furnished, will do well to send to the care of and through this responsible worthy House.

Mr. Thackeray, who is now delivering ectures in Edinburg, has a contract from a publishing house in London, for the writing of a volume of a certain length, at £6,000. Mr. Thackeray was lately calculating, to a friend. how much this would come to per line, and it is estimated at three shillings (English.) And yet he was so lazy that he had held the contract several months without writing a line. It is a romance, and as he intends to kill off his hero in America, a crrtain amount of criticism on American manners and customs may be expected

LECTURES-MEDICAL DEPARTMENT UNIVERSITY In spite of the fire which consumed the splendid edifice of the Medical Department of the University, the regular didactic lectures will be continued without interruption. The most valuable part of the library and a portion of the costly apparatus were saved. The fire, which broke out about 8 o'cleek, communicated from a slove in the chemical laboratory and had progressed to such an extent that it was found impossible to arrest it. The museum, the finest and most extensive in the West, probably, was totally lost, and it will be a long time before it can be replaced.

Enough of the apparatus, books, plates, &c were saved to enable the Faculty to complete their several courses. The lectures will be continued at the Louisville Marine Hospital for the CRIM CON .- A case of this sort which recently occurred in Lafayette, has got into the newspapers. It appears that the wife of a very influential and honorable business man, was seduced by one of equal standing and apparent worth. It commenced by attentions in themselves harmess, but, when critically examined, incompatible with the lady's relation to her bushand; and like any evil, it grew so insidiously that for years, as the drama disclosed, most frequent criminality was kept np. The husband coufid-ing in his wife's fidelity, when he heard of the first suspicion, promptly yet confidingly required the gentleman to desist from visiting his house, which was obeyed apparently, but the evil was made known, by accidentaly surprising the paramour, who had just escaped from the husband's ned, and who in the effort to escape, and still unknown to the husband, grappled him and was so severely beaten that he was forced to cry for nelp, after which he was so much more chastised as to render life rather doubtful, and in that ndition was carried to his own wife and there refused by her, on hearing where, by whom, and or what he was damaged. Thus have the weet hopes and love, and affection of two famlies been blighted and rnined .- Vincennes Gaz

Di Swedish Herbs of rarest virtue made,
They throw all other medicinea into shade.
The weak dyspepiic, using them, revives.
The paie consimpure files to them, and lives;
Nervous complaints, of every type, they cure,
Aud when the blood's corrupted, make 11 pure,
Fever and Ague, quickly they relieve,
And in Nevralgia never can deceive.
Brouchitis, Asilinia, and each Lung complaint
They cure atonce, and leave behind no laint;
And certain are they, if not used too lale,

William's Anti-Dyspeptic Elixir IS, with the utmost confidence, offered to the Medical Faculty and the public, for the cure of Dyspepsia of Indigestion, and all diseases arising from it, such as Nausea, Headache, Vertigo, Diminess of Sight, Debility of the Nervous System, lebility of the Nervous System, Hypochoudria, Jaindice, Loss of Appente, Washing of the strength, Platulence, with frequent belching of Wind, Vitated taste, Lonstipation and uneasiness of the bowels, Britius Vouning, Burning sensation at the pil of the stomach, Liver Complaint.

side,
Sallowness of complexion,
Depression of spirits, and irritability of temper, &c.
If a case of dyspepsia should be neglected, most serious effects may ensure, for it lays the foundation for, is the ncipient cause of, and very frequently terminates in connumption. I would impress upon the nind that to Irrite with this disease, may be for port with that reason which constitutes man super eniment among animal beings, or o cimbiliter existence by adding a consciousness of folly
o the penalty of pain. to embilier existence by adding a consciousness of folly to the penalty of pain.

This medicine is prepared entirely from vegetable substances; the most delicate stomach can bear it conveniently, and it is given with perfect safety, in minute does to the most tender infants, its properties being of a strengthening and invigorating nature. It is nearly put up in boilles, with ample directions for use.

The following testimonials from some well known and respectable citizens of Philadelphia, are fully corroborative of the iried efficacy of the Anii-Dyspepic Elixir.

Attestation.

We having used William's Anti-Dyspeptic Elixir with the most perfect satisfaction and success, take great plea-sure in recommending It to all persons suffering with Dys-pepsia, as we are fully convinced of its most estimate qualities in restoring the digestive powers, removing all pain and uneasities, and imputing a healthy tone to the tomach.

Testimony of Mr. Michael Dunn, Superintendent of the Philadelphia Exchange, corroborative of the efficacy of William's Anti-Dyspephe Elaxir.

Doctor James Williams:—For several years past, I have been liable to attacks of Dyspepsis, out never nave I been more distressingly afficted with its symptoms, than within the last few weeks. Indigestion, nervoils irritability, despondency, a sense of weight in the stomach, and severe pains in the left side, rendering me, for the time being, truly wretched. Forthardley, I was recommended by a friend to try your Elixir. I did ao, and in less than two weeks, indigestion ceased; pain and herrous depression left me, and appetite, with mental and bodily health, were fully restored. To me the cure seeined almost nutraculons, and my object in writing to you sea hope that other persons suffering the miseries of Dyspepsia will avail themselves of your efficient remedy.
